Miss Elaine!

A day camp to dance your way through!

In an environment that facilitates and nurtures creativity, children can continue to improve their technique while experiencing and discovering various forms of dance and movement. The children will rediscover their body in new ways, create with it, create with others, create with the environment. There will be time to play, time to relax, time to say... so the whole child can "be".

The young dancers will Jump into Jazz... Move and Manoeuvre into Modern Dance... Investigate and Inquire in Improvisation workshops... Create and Compile in the Choreography program... And connect with one's own Muse... There will be time in the water, time outdoors to dance and play, and time to design and fabricate their costumes for the end of camp performance. A taste of Dance History, an adventure behind the scenes of the stage and the final performance.

No dance experience required.

Fee
Residents	$400
Non-residents	$600

Our Facilities

We will have access to rooms for dancing, arts and craft, and a stage. We will also be going to the park and the municipal pool.

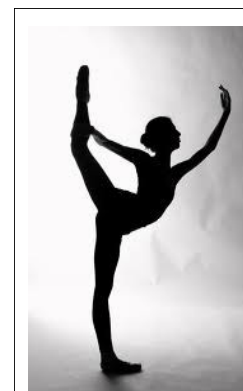

Dress Code

No color is enforced. However, during ballet classes, students are required to wear a ballet leotard (bodysuit), tights, and ballet slippers.

In the other programs, dancers may choose to continue with the ballet uniform or instead of tights, wear tights with the feet cut off and dance shoes. A change of clothing such as sweatpants, shorts and tops is recommended.

Please bring the following articles: bathing suit, towel, sunscreen and your lunch (nut-free).
